DJ Mattox, ’11, wed Erin Mobley on December 10, 2011, at Twigs Tempietto. DJ is an assistant baseball coach at Anderson. Erin is a current student and is also employed by The Peoples National Bank.

Trey Britton, ’11, began is pro playing career in October for Aanekosken Huima of Finland's Division 1 basketball league.

Jill Boggs, ’11, wed Jonathan Fowler, ’11, on June 25, 2011. Jill is an administrative assistant in the Anderson University Office of Admissions; Jonathan is a first grade teacher at Nevitt Forest Community School of Innovation.

David Bishop, ’11, is a graphic designer for Clemson University for Student Affairs Publications.

Caryn DeRuiter, ’11, is teaching art at Calhoun Academy of the Arts and Southwood Middle School in Anderson.

Justin Templeton, ’11, wed Brittany Leigh Tisdale on September 24, 2011, at the Ryan Nicholas Inn in Simpsonville. He is employed by Perceptis in Greenville.

Charlene Fidelia, ’11, is the head JV volleyball coach and assistant varsity coach at Carolina Day School in Asheville, N.C.

Kathleen Kersey, ’11, wed Chris Clark on August 27, 2011, at First Baptist in Bluffton.

Nina Reid, ’11, is an accounts payable analyst with ScanSource, Inc. in Greenville.

Hannah Leonard, ’11, wed Seth Wright on August 13, 2011.

Rachel Lee, ’11, works in admissions for ECPI in Greenville.

Derek Hipp, ’10, is employed by Elliott Davis in Columbia. He will marry Ashley Elizabeth Altman on August 4.

Cassie Burton, ’10, wed Christopher Francis, ’11, on December 31, 2011. Her latest production was Hairspray at LaComedia Dinner Theatre in Springboro, Ohio.

Angel F. Reese, ’10, is employed by Environmental Marketing Services.

Jensa H. Roper, ’10, and Travis Roper, ’10, welcomed daughter Maddison Leigh on October 14, 2011.
Sara Lynn Winburn, ’10, began her graduate studies at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in January 2012.

Kelly Casebere, ’10, is a programs intern at The Getting2Tri Foundation.

Jamie Lancaster, ’10, is pursuing her doctorate in physical therapy from the Medical University of South Carolina.

Lauren M. Milton, ’09, received her doctorate from the Charleston School of Law in December 2011.

David Crowther, ’09, earned his M.Div. from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in December 2011.

Sterling Kenny, ’08, became the director of membership development for the Spartanburg Area Chamber of Commerce in January.

Elisabeth Timm, ’08, earned her MBA from Charleston Southern University on December 13, 2011.

Jim Kines, ’07, is the new director of campus safety at Anderson University.

Rachel Bishop, ’07, wed Thomas J. Porter on October 1, 2011.

April G. Baur, ’07, is the assistant director of Financial Aid at Wofford College.

Lindsey J. Cunningham, ’07, and husband Nick welcomed son Rowan Gray on September 23, 2011.

Whitney W. Broderick, ’07, and husband Matthew welcomed son Rhett Morrison on December 20, 2011.

Dawn Harbin, ’07, is pursuing her doctorate in clinical psychology through Walden University. She is employed with Greenville Mental Health Center as a supervisor over senior adult services and the IPS program (Individual Placement and Support Services).

Kim Hausman, ’07, is a financial analyst for Boiler Tube Co. of America.
Denton Moore, '07, is the head golf professional at Lady's Island Country Club in Beaufort.

Jonathan Brown, '06, wed Lindsay Morgan Thompson on December 10, 2011, at Dials United Methodist Church in Laurens.

Meredith M. Gosnell, '06, and husband Travis welcomed the arrival of son Judah Davis on July 21, 2011.

Amber G. Huston, '06, works part-time with the main branch of the Durham County Library. She and husband Kevin have two children: daughter Ella (born February 3, 2008) and son Eli (born July 30, 2009.)

Ethel Young, '06, is a foster care case manager for Anderson County DSS.

Timothy Pitts, '05, (MBA, ‘11), has been promoted to executive assistant at Oconee Federal Savings and Loan Association in Seneca.

Sarah Swofford, ’05, has published her first book as part of an authorship team for the National Council of Teachers of English through her work as a Ph.D. student at the University of Michigan. It's titled Supporting Students in a Time of Common Core Standards: Grades 3-5.

Carolyn S. Rutherford, ’05, and husband Paul welcomed daughter Grace Pennington on October 26, 2011.

Heather S. McKeon, '05, has been promoted from studio director to interiors director and named an associate with the Kraemer Design Group, based in Detroit, Mich. She was lead interior designer on the Hotel Indigo - San Antonio River Walk project in Texas, which won the International Interior Design Association's 2011 First Place Michigan Interior Design Excellence Award.

Felicia Ann Roberson, '05, is a program representative for SC Works (Department of Employment and Workforce.)

Kelly Godwin, '05, is a technology teacher and upper elementary assistant for The Montessori School of Anderson. She is also co-owner of Sugah Photography.

Brandy B. McDavid, '05, has been named Teacher of the Year at Nevitt Forest Community School of Innovation in Anderson.

Theresa O'Rourke, '04, is now owner of the Anderson PIP Printing franchise.

Becky D. Simpson, '04, and husband Randall welcomed daughter Gracie Darlene on December 20, 2011.
Celia B. Myers, ’03, and husband Robert welcomed twin daughters, Brooke Helen and Lilly Inez, on November 8, 2011. Big sister Kate Elizabeth is three years old.

Russ Bennett, ’02, is staff pastor at James Island Christian Church.

Andy Newsome, ’02, is the music and worship pastor at Trinity Baptist Church in Ocala, Fla. He previously served five and a half years in Atlanta, Ga.

Jessica H. Raymond, ’01, and Mac Raymond, ’01, welcomed son Ezekiel Gardner on December 4, 2011.

Chris Edwards, ’01, is the pitching coach at Furman University.

1990s

Melissa DeAngelis, ’98, is the director of design for Young Office in Greenville.

1980s

Travis Moore, ’88, has been appointed to serve the Probate Court Judges Advisory Committee by South Carolina Supreme Court Chief Justice Jean Toal. The advisory committee was created for the purpose of providing advice and recommendations to the chief justice regarding the improvement of justice in South Carolina probate courts. Additionally, members of the advisory committee assist in the planning for the Probate Judges Orientation School and serve as instructors. Judge Moore was elected as probate judge of Greenwood County in November 2010 and is currently serving his four-year term.

Kelly K. McWhorter, ’88, is the executive director of the Greenwood Regional Tourism and Visitors Bureau.

Brenda K. Horton, ’86, was appointed to be the probate judge for Jasper County. She previously was elected county treasurer.

Brad Waters, ’85, is a senior programmer analyst with AVX.
Stewart Robinson, ’82, is the owner/operator of Robinson's Bobcat Service, LLC.

1970s

Terry Tritt, ’79, was recently elected as a fellow of the American Physical Society, the scientific society's highest member honor. The award cites his "career-long contributions to the science and engineering of thermoelectric materials, the industrial application of that knowledge, and the education and promotion of numerous young scientists and engineers." American Physical Society Fellows are elected by their peers for outstanding contributions to the field of physics. Fellowship is limited to no more than one half of 1 percent of the membership. (The American Physical Society was founded in 1899 as a source of information for the advancement of physics. With 46,000 members, it conducts education and outreach and is active in governmental affairs and in the international physics community.)

Susan T. Fernandez, ’76, earned her doctorate in educational leadership and social justice from Union Institute & University in October 2011.

1960s

1950s

Louise C. Plecker, ’56, retired June 30, 2011, after 23 years of service as the general registrar for Bath County (Va.) voter registration office.

In Memoriam

David Crenshaw, ’07, died January 9, 2012. He was a member of the Pendleton Volunteer Fire Department for 50 years and served as chief for 21 years. He served in law enforcement for 34 years and formerly served as sheriff of Anderson County. David was currently serving on the Pendleton Town Council. He was a member of Pendleton Lodge #34, the Hejaz Shrine, the Clemson York Rite Bodies, and Pendleton United Methodist Church.

Dena Driskell, ’78, died November 7, 2011. She was employed by BB&T.

Tommy Batson, ’73, died January 9, 2012. He had retired from the Information Technology Department of MetLife after 35 years of service. He was a member of Sans Souci Baptist Church and was currently worshipping at Berea First Baptist Church. He also volunteered with Meals on Wheels for many years.
Jimmie Lane Fowler, '1971, died January 9, 2012. He was a veteran of the United States Air Force and retired from the South Carolina State Department of Education as the school transportation director. He was also a member of Starr Baptist Church, where he was a former deacon and Sunday school teacher. Additionally, he was a former Boy Scout Leader, Little League coach, and a founding member of the Starr Athletic Association.

Charleen Downey McMahan, '68, died February 12, 2012. A lifetime member of Girl Scouts of the USA, she was an Old 96 and Camp WaBak staff member.

Mildred Morris, '65, died October 28, 2011. She was a retired registered nurse and a member of First Baptist Church of Anderson.

Mary Katherine "Kitty" Brunson Herbert, '63, died February 3, 2012. In 1973 she went to work for Chief Magistrate O. Lang Hogon as his assistant. On June 1, 1979, she was appointed by the governor as the first female magistrate in South Carolina. After Judge Hogon's retirement she was appointed Chief Magistrate, a position she held until the late 1990's. Kitty also served as the City Summary Court Judge where she established Sumter's first "night court" sessions. She retired as a magistrate in April 2002. At that time she was honored for her service by the Sumter Bar Association as well as granted The Order of the Silver Crescent by Governor James Hodges for her work in Sumter County. She served as secretary/treasurer of Brunson Farms, LLC for 25 years as well as bookkeeper of her husband's fire extinguisher business. She was the first female member of the Sumter Palmetto Rotary Club, a member of The Forum-A Women's Civic Awareness organization and the SC Magistrate's Association. Other honors include Social Justice Consortium-Woman of Excellence and YWCA Twin Honoree Tribute to Women in Industry. She was a member of Sumter First Baptist Church.

Morgan W. Rodgers, '51, died February 11, 2012. Reverend Rodgers was a former pastor at the following churches in South Carolina: Spring Gully Baptist Church in Andrews, Bloomingvale Baptist Church in Andrews, Calvary Baptist Church in Lake City, Welsh Neck Baptist Church in Society Hill, Gethsemane Baptist Church in St. Matthews and Paran Baptist Church in Lake City.

Sara Kay Salley Tyler, '45, died January 17, 2012. She was longtime office manager and bookkeeper for the family-owned business Tyler Brothers in Wagener. She was also a member of Wagener First Baptist, a past member of the WMU, and a past member of the Wagener Garden Club.

Carolyn Tommie Busby Heaton, '44, died March 20, 2011. She was a teacher and a homemaker. She was also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star in Anderson, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, the Trenton Daughters of the American Revolution, and St. Johns United Methodist Church.

Margaret Griffith Hunter, '44, died December 17, 2011. She had taught in the Anderson public school system for many years. Later she worked in the credit union of BASF in Anderson. She was an active member of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church, where for many years she taught children's Sunday school classes, was a member of Prime Timer's, and served on various committees.

Evelyn Campbell McFadden, '44, died November 1, 2011. She was retired from the banking industry as a customer service representative and was an accomplished church organist and pianist. Evelyn was a member of Fairview Baptist Church.

Norma Rollins Green, '42, died November 4, 2011. She previously taught reading at Beck and Greer High School for 20 years and help managed a "dude" ranch in Pecos Wilderness, New Mexico, for several years.

Stella Prince Wall, '41, died September 29, 2011. She retired from BellSouth and belonged to the Telephone Company Pioneers. She was also a member of Shiloh United Methodist Church.

Mary Glenn Bookhart, '40, died November 30, 2011. She was a homemaker and a member of New Prospect Baptist Church.

Elsie Gandy Auman Henley, '38, died October 04, 2011. She was a housewife and worked as a rural mail carrier. She was also a former librarian in Society Hill. She had volunteered at Wilson Hospital and was a past recipient of the Volunteer of the Year Award. Elsie was a lifelong Sunday school teacher and member of Welsh Neck Baptist Church before joining Central Baptist Church.