Candace Gowan, ’11, is the graduate assistant in the Anderson University residence life office for the 2011-12 school year. She is also pursuing her master’s in education at Anderson.

Shannon Decken, ’11, is an elementary Spanish teacher with Spartanburg School District Six.

Jessica Robinson, ’11, wed Andrew Johnson on July 30, 2011, at The Cliffs of Glassy Chapel. She is in the P.T.A. program at Greenville Technical College.

Silas Godfrey, ’11, is a graphic designer for Main Street Webworx.

Mary Elizabeth Robinson, ’11, is pursuing her doctorate of physical therapy at the University of South Carolina.

Brittany Arledge, ’11, is an interior designer for Expressive Designs, Inc.

Melissa Jean Morgan, ’11, wed Zachary Denny on June 25, 2011, at Lexington Baptist Church.

Morgan Johnson, ’11, is a first grade teacher at McLees Academy of Leadership.

Dave Wallace, ’11, is the morning show producer for WHNN in Michigan.

Amanda Merk, ’11, wed Spencer Taylor on May 28, 2011, at Capstone Church in Anderson. She is a math teacher at T.L. Hanna High School.

David DeHart, ’11, is pursuing his doctorate in microbiology at the Medical University of South Carolina.

Mac South, ’11, wed Elyse LeRoy on May 21, 2011, on historic Trinity Street in Abbeville. He is a teacher at Seneca High School. Elyse will complete her studies at Anderson University in 2012.

Andrew Driver, ’11, is employed by Timken.

Kaitlyn Frederick, ’11, wed Grayson Porter on June 11, 11, at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in Walhalla. She is a resource teacher for Anderson School District Two; Grayson will complete his studies at Anderson University in December.

Kaleigh Barnes, ’11, wed Adam Coats on May 21, 2011.
Nikita Cowan, ’10, preached her initial sermon at Evergreen Baptist Church in Anderson on August 7, 2011.

Cassidy Wood, ’10, is an account manager for Microsoft at SYNNEX.

Aaron Ledford, ’10, wed Stephanie White, ’11, on July 17, 2010, at First Baptist Church in Cleveland, Tenn.

Amy Marino, ’10, wed Marc Pibernat, ’10, on May 15, 2011. She is an interior designer with Noble Hampton, Inc.

Eddie McCall, ’10, is pursuing a master's in criminal justice. He teaches at ITT-Technical Institute in the criminal justice division at the Greenville campus.

Marc Lindsey, ’10, is a mental health technician for Palmetto Lowcountry Behavioral Health.

Lauren Vass, ’10, wed Clay Guthrie on December 4, 2010. She is the business development manager for Vass Markets, Inc.

Nathaniel Milhous, ’10, is pursuing his master's in applied economics at The Johns Hopkins University's Zanvyl Krieger School of Arts and Sciences. He is an economist with the Bureau of Economic Analysis.

Rebecca Kimmons, ’10, is a staff accountant with CountyBank.

Danielle Orr, ’10, wed Benjamin Cox on August 7, 2010. She is a K4 teacher at St. John's United Methodist Church in Anderson.

Doug Hall, ’10, is a production control specialist at Timken.

Katy Hine, ’10, is in the doctorate program for physical therapy at Elon University.

Maria Rushwin, ’10, wed Mike Giordano, ’10, on May 15, 2010.

Silas Crisp, ’10, is pursuing his dental degree at the Medical University of South Carolina.
Jenna Mitchell, ’10, is pursuing her master's at Mercer University's McAfee School of Theology.

Jennifer Chapman, ’10, wed Phillip Bigsby on May 15, 2010. She is a customer service rep for Kravet Inc.

Kevin Bell, ’10, is an adjunct professor at Tri-County Technical College.

Laura Metz, ’10, is an interior designer for facilities planning and design with Fluor Enterprises, Inc.

KeAnna E. Kilpatrick, ’10, and husband Preston welcomed son Preston Nathaniel (Nate) on April 1, 2011.

Caroline Thrailkill, ’10, wed Zach Brewer, ’10, on January 8, 2011, at Simpsonville First Baptist Church.

Torri Atkins, ’10, is a math teacher at JL Mann High School in Greenville.

Luis Martinez, ’10, wed Hollins Deal, ’11, on June 11, 2011, at Boulevard Baptist Church in Anderson. He is an assistant store manager at TD Bank in Anderson.

Kaylyn Moore, ’10, is a permit and license tech for the City of Greenville.

Jena Hannon, ’09, is an interior designer with Postcard from Paris in Greenville. She received her master's in historic preservation from The University of Georgia in August 2011.

Grant Reeves, ’09, earned his M.B.A. from The Citadel Graduate School in May 2011. He is a financial analyst for PRIMO Water in Winston-Salem, N.C.

Andrew Davis, ’09, is a PE teacher and coach at Archdale-Trinity Middle School in Trinity, N.C.

Brittany Boyter, ’09, wed Jim Slatten, ’10, on June 4, 2011, at Ware Shoals First Baptist Church. Brittany is a teacher with Ware Shoals School District 51 and received her master's from Anderson in December 2010. Jim is employed by Piedmont Fire Extinguishers.

Courtney Stanford, ’09, is a service representative with the Department of Veterans Affairs in Columbia.
Alison Williams, '09, wed Justin Miller on July 30, 2011, at Westminster Baptist Church.

Lori Butler, '09, is pursuing a master's in Christian ministry at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

April Boom, '09, wed Nathan Whitworth, '08, on May 7, 2011.

Eric Tabone, '09, is pursuing a master's in technology systems at East Carolina University. He is a senior IP baseband technician at Fort Bragg Regional Hub Node.

Blake Butler, '09, is an account support specialist at Ferebee Lane and Co.

Ryan Thompson, '09, wed Matthew Jones on June 18, 2011. She is a math teacher at Andrew Jackson Middle School in Lancaster.

Elizabeth Bundy, '09, earned her master's in human resource development from Clemson University on August 13, 2011.

Tanya West, '09, completed her master's in interior design from Florida State University in August 2011.

Derrick Miller, '09, wed Katelyn Rodgers, '11, in July 2011.

Lauren Owens, '09, wed Adam Bret Lambright on June 25, 2011, at The Ryan Nicholas Inn in Simpsonville.

Rebecca L. Shaw, '09, and husband Justin welcomed daughter Adelyn Grace on July 29, 2011.

Marshall Pickens, '08, was promoted to office manager at CapitalBank's Clemson office in August 2011.

Ashley Callaham, '08, wed Brian Stephen Smith on June 17, 2011, at Whitefield Baptist Church in Belton. She is a second grade teacher at Calhoun School of the Arts in Anderson.

Rebekah Brown, '08, wed Brandon Johnson on July 9, 2011, at Mt. Bethel Baptist Church in Belton. She is a teacher at Starr Elementary School.

Erin Dennehy, '08, wed Seth Hodges on June 25, 2011.

Leanna Willis, '08, wed Steven Owings on May 21, 2011, at Good Hope Baptist Church in Saluda. She is a student in the University of South Carolina-Upstate School of Nursing.
Don Ballard, ’08, wed Ashley Finley on June 4, 2011, at Belton First Baptist Church.

Avery E. Davis, ’08, and husband Ryan welcomed daughter AvLynne Anne on October 26, 2010.

Nicole Barnes, ’08, is a paralegal with Kenyon, Lusk & Anderson in Anderson.

Jessica Snapp, ’08, wed Ronny Sharpe on April 2, 2011. She is a second grade teacher at Whitehall Elementary in Anderson.

Craig Long, ’07, wed Alexis Horn, ’09, on May 28, 2011, in New Orleans. He also passed his state boards and earned his certification as a physical therapy assistant.

Howard Braden, ’07, is pursuing his master's in reading education at Stetson University.

Jessica F. Miller, ’07, is a campus pastor for Redemption of Asheville, a satellite campus of Redemption World Outreach Center.

Meryl D. O'Donald, ’07, and husband Austin O'Donald, ’06, welcomed daughter Phoebe Katherine on November 25, 2010.

Rachel Bishop, ’07, earned her doctorate of veterinary medicine from Mississippi State University on April 27, 2011. She is an associate veterinarian with Hudson Road Veterinary Clinic.

Chris Carter, ’07, is working on his master's in counseling at Westminster Theological Seminary in Pennsylvania. He earned his master's from Reformed Theological Seminary in 2010.

Alexis S. Crawford, ’06, wed Lee Matthews on November 20, 2010. She is a loan administrator post closer for The Peoples Bank.

Jennifer Roose, ’06 (M.Ed., ’10), wed Blake Makison on June 18, 2011. She earned her master's in education in December 2010 from Anderson University.

Mike Gillespie, ’06, was named the Anderson University Criminal Justice Alumnus of the Year at the annual Law Enforcement Appreciation Banquet held in March.
John Mac White, '06, is an associate agent with Jay Williams State Farm Insurance in Alpharetta, Ga. He also serves as chairman of the education committee of Young Professionals of Johns Creek, a branch of the Johns Creek Chamber of Commerce.

Gregory Gambrell, '06, earned his master's in pastoral ministry from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in May 2010. He is now pastor of Seivern Baptist Church in Wagener.

Lauren Shell, '06, has been accepted into the M.F.A. program for technical direction at the University of Virginia. She will also serve as a graduate teaching assistant for the undergraduate theatre classes. She completed her master's in acting from Mary Baldwin College in 2009.

Josha Allen, '06, wed Anna Taylor McCabe on May 6, 2011, at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Columbia. He has earned his law degree from the University of South Carolina and is employed with the S.C. Judicial Department.

Quientell Walker, '06, is a reference librarian for Captain Kimberly Hampton Memorial Library in Pickens County. He recently took his first mission trip to London through I Am Second.

Amy Whiten, '06, (MBA, '10), became the Alcohol Enforcement Team Coordinator for the 10th Circuit (Anderson and Oconee counties.)

Laneika M. Musalini, '06, earned her master's in human resource development from Clemson University in August 2011.

Jeff Watson, '06, has been named the assistant athletic director for compliance for Lees-McRae College. He has also served as the assistant track & field coach in charge of throws, garnering USTFCCCA Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year honors during the 2009-2010 season.

Kurtis Miller, '05, is an instructor at Purdue University, where he is working on his Ph.D. in communication. He completed his master's from the College of Charleston in 2009.

Katie Rohletter, '05, wed Stephen Ezell on June 25, 2011, at Clearmont Baptist Church in Westminster. She is the physical education teacher at Orchard Park Elementary School in Westminster.

Brandy B. McDavid, '05, is pursuing a master's degree in administration at Anderson University.

Ashley E. Steed, '05, and husband Ryan welcomed daughter Gabriella "Gabby" Mae on January 6, 2011.
Bryan Cato, '05, wed Christianna Frances Crow on April 16 at the First Baptist Church of Laurens. He is an outbound supervisor for Southeastern Freight.

Alphaeus Anderson, '05, and Teen Pure-N-Heart released their Live DVD on May 1 at Camelot Cinemas in Greenville.

Kerri Erskine, '05, earned her master's from Southeastern Seminary in December 2010.

Dixie H. Trent, '05, and husband Derek welcomed son Osmond Alejandro on February 8, 2011.

Kristen J. Hearne, '04, was named the Teacher of the Year 2011-12 for Anderson School District One.

Stephanie B. McMullan, '04, welcomed daughter Blakely Susan in July 2011.

Miranda R. Church, '04, and husband Chris welcomed son Parker on August 8, 2011.

Rachel Warren, '04, is an art teacher at Kingswood Montessori Academy.

Megan Bradley, '04, wed Mark Wagoner at Tybee Island, Ga., on September 25, 2010. She is a product manager with Digital Broadcast, Inc. and is working on her executive MBA from the University of Florida.

Kathryn Kimbrell, '04, wed Beau Evans on March 5, 2011, at Summerall Chapel, The Citadel in Charleston. She is a technical writer with CGI Federal.

Brad Newton, '03, wed Ashley Kristen Johnson on May 7, 2011, at Walker Hall. He is employed with American Security.

Donnie Fetner, '03, wed Brennen Long on June 3, 2011, at Wintergreen Woods in Lexington. He earned his master's in exercise science from the University of South Carolina and is employed by Smith & Nephew, a medical device sales company.

Brooke Posley, '03, earned a master's in library science from Clarion University of Pennsylvania in December 2010.

Brandon Clark, '02, is branch manager of Professional Staffing Services at Robert Half International.

Shan Applin, '02, and wife Shauna welcomed daughter Reagan Mary on December 28, 2010. Shan is a manager with Starbucks Co.
Richard Robinson, '01, is assistant professor of microbiology and molecular genetics at the Medical College of Wisconsin. He earned his doctorate from Dartmouth College in 2007 and completed his postdoctoral training with the Trudeau Institute.

Brandi Andrews, '01, is a key account executive for LabCorp.

Sarah B. Farley, '01, and husband Starke welcomed daughter Crosby Elise on November 9, 2010.

1990s

Kyndra Waganer, '99, is the communications and events manager for the Ben Lippen School in Columbia.

Jeanna Simmons, ’99, is a design support specialist for The Greenville News.

Rebecca G. Lawson, ’98, and husband Steven welcomed son Alexander Lawrence on May 13, 2010. She is a teacher with the Cherokee County School District.

Jason Moss, ’98, earned his doctorate in pastoral ministry from Covington Theological Seminary in July 2011. He began teaching at Covington in fall 2011. He and wife Tina Y. Moss, '98, welcomed son Mason Joseph on May 25, 2010. They have two older children: Noah (10) and Hannah (8).

Andy Fox, ’96, is an EMT instructor for Medix College. He and his wife April have three children - Austin, Ansleigh and Autumn.

Tracy M. Spires, ’96, is the registrar for Erskine College.

Angela York-Pless, ’91, welcomed son Davis Bryant Kracht on September 10, 2010.

1980s

Angela M. Pinson, ’89, is director of administration for Berkeley County Water and Sanitation.

Aretha Carter, ’88, is a registered nurse with the cardiology department of Providence Hospital.

Travis Moore, ’88, is a probate judge for Greenwood County.

Tim Williamson, '87, has successfully received a certificate in retirement planning from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, and has been awarded by AXA Advisors the title of retirement planning specialist.

Roy Howe, ’86, is a training and business development manager in Singapore.
Carter Infinger, ’84, was elected commissioner for Bryan County, Ga. He is a consultant for Endo Pharmaceuticals.

David West, ’81, is pursuing his doctorate with Regent University's School of Global Leadership & Entrepreneurship.

1970s

Jim Motes, ’79, earned his doctorate from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in July.

David Witt, ’78, is director of quality for Hollander Home Fashions.

Carol T. Armstrong, ’77, is employed with AnMed - Medical Affairs in Anderson.

1960s

Ike McLeese, ’64, has been reappointed for a third term as a civilian aide to the Secretary of the Army (CASA). CASAs help to promote good relations between the Army and the public and advise the secretary about their regional areas.

Linda B. Gambrell, ’62, was named co-editor of Reading Research Quarterly, one of the most prestigious research journals in the field of literacy, along with Susan Neuman of the University of Michigan. Linda has been president of the International Reading Association, a nonprofit organization committed to worldwide literacy, since 1999. She was elected to the Reading Hall of Fame in 2004 for outstanding contribution to reading instruction.

In memoriam

Chad Metcalfe, ’97, died May 22, 2011. He was employed by Cromer Food Services, Inc., and attended West Anderson Church of God.

Robert Ellison, ’75, died July 31, 2011. He was employed by Wells Aluminum and retired from Michelin. He was a member of Second Baptist of Belton. He is survived by his wife of 33 years, Melissa P. Ellison, ’78.

Pamela Watkins Powell, ’74, died January 25, 2011. She had worked for many years in Clemson University's Athletic Department as an administrative assistant. She was also an active member of Pendleton First Baptist Church.
Donald Miller, ’70, died June 1, 2011. For most of his working years he was associated with the family-owned business, E. S. Copeland Manufacturing Company. He retired from the local Army National Guard after serving 23 years. He was a member of Batesburg-Leesville Presbyterian Church.

Bill Clark, ’69, died December 2, 2010. He was a founder of Electric City Playhouse and was a member of First Baptist Church.

Myron Aycock, ’69, died February 25, 2011. He attended Taylor Memorial Pentecostal Holiness church and formerly worked at True Temper and at Wal-Mart.

Connie Mahaffey McCarty, ’67, died July 6, 2011. She was chairperson of the Career and Technology Department and co-advisor of DECA and Association of Marketing Students, FBLA and the National Technical Honor Society. She had retired from Richland County School District 2 after 39 years of service. She was a member of Centennial Association Reformed Presbyterian Church and the Sally Barker Circle.

Barry Smith, ’66, died January 8, 2011. He was retired from the South Carolina Department of Corrections. He was a member of Elliott Baptist Church and was a U.S. Navy veteran.

Thomas Jaudon, ’64, died March 20, 2009. He was a program administrator for the City Council of Baltimore.

Mary Kirby Parker, ’62, died March 19, 2011 at the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home. She enjoyed a long career of working with children and families in the Winston-Salem area as a juvenile court counselor and a vocational rehabilitation counselor and retired after 27 years as a school social worker in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System. Mary was an active member of College Park Baptist Church, where she sang in the Sanctuary Choir and the Grace Notes Music Ministry and also taught Sunday School. Previously, she was a member at Walkertown First Baptist Church, where she also taught Sunday School and served as pianist/organist for 25 years.

Frances Rivers Jenkins, ’62, died July 19, 2011. She was a retired school teacher from Buffalo Elementary School and a member of Cane Creek Presbyterian Church.

Billy Bostic, ’60, died May 26, 2011. He had served in the United States Navy and retired from Clark-Schwebel Corp. An avid outdoorsman, Billy enjoyed hunting and fishing as well as all sports. Additionally, he was a known beekeeper who was a member of the BeeKeepers Club of Anderson. For nearly 50 years he was a member of Starr Baptist Church, where he had served as a Sunday school teacher as well as deacon. Survivors include his wife Mildred Moore Bostic, ’59.
Walter Roy Cooper, ’59, died February 26, 2011. He served in the U.S. Navy and was employed as an engineer with Flexible Technologies. Walter retired from Cooper Trucks and Equipment and was co-owner of the former Strawberry Patch in Abbeville and Greenwood. He served as the first director of the Greater Abbeville Chamber of Commerce and was a member of the Abbeville Gideon Camp, the Clinton Masonic Lodge and was an ordained deacon and Sunday school teacher. He was a member of New Hope Presbyterian Church. Walter is survived by his wife Joyce C. Cooper, ’59.

Ethel Irene Camden Garrett, ’56, died May 18, 2011. She retired after 25 years as a secretary for Lunsford Oil Company and was a member of Marietta First Baptist Church, where she taught Sunday school for 30 years.

Clyde McNair Park, ’50, died July 25, 2011. She was a charter member of Clemson Presbyterian Church and was active in her church and community.

Karl G. McKoy, Jr., ’49, died January 7, 2009. He was retired from the construction business and was a member of Central Presbyterian Church.

Joseph Walker, ’48, died July 25, 2010. Rev. Walker was a member of Calvary Baptist Church. He had pastored many churches throughout South Carolina including Blackstock Baptist in Chester; Beaver Creek Baptist in Lancaster; and other churches in Anderson, Spartanburg, and Newberry.

Dot McGarvey Martin, ’47, died March 28, 2011. A former member of the Hardeeville Town Council, Dot and her late husband were the original owners of Hester's Martinique, Savannah, the Magnolia Restaurant and Motel in Hardeeville and various other enterprises.

Lille Rae Earle Yeargin, ’44, died January 28, 2011. She was a retired teacher's assistant. She was a former member of First Baptist Church in Gastonia, where she taught adult Sunday school and was a past president of the WMU. Currently, she was a member of Covenant Baptist Church where she taught adult Sunday school, was a past president of the WMU and was a member of the Ladies Fellowship Class.

Ruth Elrod, ’44, died May 19, 2011. Ruth started her career of teaching at the old Bowen Elementary School in Iva, where she later served as principal for seven years. She then taught 12 years at Iva Elementary School before moving to Starr-Iva Middle School, where she retired. Ruth earned the title of "Teacher of the Year" at Starr-Iva Middle School. Her teaching career spanned 40 years.

Edna Fincher, ’43, died July 24, 2011. In her early life, she worked as a medical secretary at Anderson Hospital. She taught elementary school in Sumter School District Two and Salem School. She was an active member of Concord Presbyterian Church for 56 years, where she served as an elder and held multiple offices in the Women of the Church. She also served on the Women's Council of Harmony Presbytery and was awarded the Presbyterian Women Honorary Life Membership. Edna was a member of the Brewington Community and Family Leaders and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Othella Moore Marett, ’43, died July 29, 2011. She was a homemaker and a member of Anderson First Baptist Church, the Dorcas Sunday School Class and the church choir.

Drucilla Long Osborne, ’43, died November 05, 2010. She was a homemaker and bookkeeper for the family business, Sid Osborne's Used Cars. She was a member of Garner Memorial Baptist Church, where she was a Sunday school teacher and a member of the choir.

Dorothy "Dot" Felkel Truluck, ’42, died March 29, 2011. Dot had worked as a substitute school teacher, was the first school secretary at Spring Elementary School, and later became the first secretary at Florence-Darlington Technical College. After many years of employment, she had retired from the Department of Social Services. Dot was instrumental in founding The Lord Cares Ministry, of which she was a strong supporter. She was active in volunteer work throughout the community and was a member of the First Baptist Church in Darlington.

Frances Elizabeth Kates Bowman, ’41, died June 27, 2011. She was a legal secretary in Anderson for many years and had retired from the Chapman and Lawing Law Firm. She was a member of the Rocky River Baptist Church, where she served in many capacities: past president of the WMU, Sunday school teacher, musician, choir member, and member of the Ruth Sunday School Class.

Louise Bruce Stave, ’40, died December 2, 2010. She was a U.S. Navy veteran, serving during World War II in Washington, D.C. Louise served as a librarian with the Multnomah County Library. After her retirement as head of the Southwest Hills branch in Hillsdale, she continued to enjoy a book and hiking group she had fostered at the library. She was an elder, teacher, and active member of Westside United Protestant Church in Richland, Wash., and Moreland Presbyterian Church and Valley Community Presbyterian Church in Portland, Ore. Survivors include her sister Elizabeth B. Rowland, ’44.

Cora Armstrong (Evelyn) Millican, ’40, died April 20, 2011. Evelyn was an active volunteer in the church and community. She was a member of Paducah First Baptist Church, where she volunteered in the nursery. One of the most gratifying times for her were the years she worked with the Red Cross Learn to Swim Program.

Mary Jo McCuen Jones, ’37, died July 29, 2011. She was a member of Latimer Memorial United Methodist Church,

Jane Bridges Plowden, ’36, died December 11, 2009. After graduation, Jane remained in Anderson for several years and served as an ambassador for the school traveling through the South performing in concerts to promote the college. She was quite active in her church, as a member of the Chancel Choir, as a Sunday school teacher and as a soloist and pianist for many occasions. For over 20 years Jane conducted Saturday ""Sunday School"" at the Presbyterian Home in Quitman, Ga.