Introduction

Anderson University’s Christian Ministry Foundation is an endowed scholarship program designed to assist AU undergraduate students who are planning to enter full-time Christian ministry or missions work. It is designed to help students defray the costs of higher education and graduate with less college debt as they begin full-time ministry.

The Christian Ministry Foundation (CMF) is sponsored by Anderson University, approved by the Board of Trust, and led by a Board of Directors composed of university and community leaders. All funds will be handled by the Office of Development at Anderson University.

Membership Opportunity

Annual CMF memberships for an individual, couple, or organization will consist of a minimum contribution of $150, corresponding with the academic school year. Additional contributions are welcome from people who are interested in helping students and who want to support those who are preparing for full-time ministry. Unless otherwise specified, all contributions will be applied to the endowed scholarship fund.

Christian Ministry Foundation Celebrations

Members and guests enjoy three scholarship dinner celebrations each year in the fall, winter and spring (possibly virtual celebrations, if warranted).

At these celebrations:

• CMF scholarship recipients share their testimonies.
• AU students provide special music.
• Guest speakers inspire attendees.
• Great fellowship and food is enjoyed.
• Our members and guests see God at work through their support of the Anderson University Christian Ministry Foundation.
