

The following outlines the CEP requirements for students that were enrolled at Anderson University as traditional, undergraduate students prior to the fall of 2019. Students arriving at AU during the fall of 2019 or after will participate in an updated CEP model which can be found in the college catalog or by contacting the Office of Student Development.

How Many CEP Credits Do I Need?

All traditional, full-time students (including residents and commuters) are required to participate in a minimum of twenty-four (24) CEPs. Successful completion of the program is required for graduation. Students who reach the age of twenty-five (25) during a semester are exempt from attending CEPs.

First Year Requirements

First year students are required to participate in three (3) CEPs that are designed to provide knowledge and skills that support their First year experience and orientation to Anderson University. These three (3) CEPs will occur in September and October. The remaining twenty-one (21) CEPs may be accumulated at varying rates over the students' semesters of attendance but must be completed before graduation.

What is CEP?

The purpose of the Curriculum Enhancement Program is to enrich students' academic experience by providing co-curricular opportunities that reinforce the educational and personal development of students within the framework of the 18 Common Learning Outcomes (CLOs) as outlined in the AU Core Curriculum. For the complete list of CLOs, refer to andersonuniversity.edu/cep. You can log in to your Self-Service account to check how many CEP credits you have.

Exemptions and Exceptions

Students over the age of twenty-five (25) are exempt. graduation.

CEP Event Scanning

The Office of Student Development will provide student workers to scan student ID cards for credit at the end of each CEP. Every student is required to scan his or her own student ID following the CEP . Students who do not have their own IDs with them as they exit the CEP will not receive credit. Students that fail to meet the minimum requirement of 24 CEPS, or students that violate the Community Values and Expectations while in attendance at a CEP, will be subject to discipline in the Office of Student Development.

Which Events Count for CEP Credit?

The CEP Calendar is updated each semester with events that fulfill the CEP requirements. The calendar can be found online at: www.andersonuniversity.edu/CEP.
