Anderson University forthrightly avers the validity and applicability of Christian truth and values to public, private, individual and corporate activities. Thus, the University seeks to employ ONLY faculty and staff members: who have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord; who are committed to the Christian faith and respectful of the University's Baptist Identity; whose faith is reflected in Christian witness through their teaching, their scholarly activities, and their interaction with students, colleagues, and the general public; who will maintain active membership in a local Christian church; and who actively engage in and demonstrably integrate the Christian faith into the teaching of their academic disciplines.

In addition to the above, please read Anderson University's Statement of Faith (<https://andersonuniversity.edu/about-au/statement-faith>).
