PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Anderson University, Anderson, South Carolina 2025-Present
Interim Program Director, Associate Professor of Clinical Counseling

Serves as the primary administrative leader for the Clinical Counseling program, overseeing departmental operations, faculty coordination, and strategic program development. Directs curriculum alignment with accreditation standards while providing high-level academic instruction to graduate-level students. Manages student recruitment and retention initiatives, provides clinical mentorship, and ensures the integration of evidence-based practices throughout the program. Acts as the principal liaison between program faculty and university administration to maintain academic excellence and foster a supportive environment for professional counselor development.

Anderson University, Anderson, South Carolina 2015-2025
Associate Professor of Psychology

Provided dedicated academic instruction and student advisement within the Department of Behavioral Sciences. Played a key role in program innovation by collaborating on the design and development of the Human Development and Family Studies major. Served the university in a critical administrative capacity as a Title IX Investigator, ensuring institutional compliance and the fair resolution of campus grievances. Contributed to departmental growth as a primary representative at university admission events and actively participated in various faculty committees to support institutional governance and curriculum enhancement.

Southern Evangelical Seminary, Charlotte, North Carolina 2023-Present

Facilitates specialized graduate-level instruction in Biblical Counseling, focusing on the intersection of theological principles and psychological frameworks. Responsible for the delivery of core curriculum, fostering critical thinking, and guiding students in the application of biblical foundations to contemporary counseling challenges. Manages all elements of course administration, including student assessment, clinical case discussions, and the provision of academic mentorship to prepare students for ministry-based and community counseling roles.

Liberty University, Lynchburg, Virginia 2020-Present
Adjunct Professor

Facilitates graduate-level instruction across a variety of counseling courses, ensuring high standards of academic rigor and clinical relevance. Manage all aspects of the virtual and/or traditional classroom environment, including the delivery of core curriculum, the evaluation of student clinical competencies, and the provision of substantive feedback to foster professional growth. Dedicated to equipping the next generation of counselors through active mentorship and the integration of evidence-based practices within a comprehensive educational framework.

Montreat College, Asheville, North Carolina
Assistant Professor of Counseling

2014-2015

Established and served as the Faculty Advisor for the Mu Chi chapter of the Chi Sigma Iota International Honor Society, fostering academic excellence and professional identity among counseling students. Provided clinical supervision for practicum and internship students, focusing on advanced case conceptualization and the implementation of evidence-based therapeutic techniques. Managed comprehensive student advising regarding clinical placements and post-graduation career development. Additionally, spearheaded curriculum revisions to ensure course content remained aligned with emerging scholarly literature and contemporary clinical standards.

Colorado Christian University, Lakewood, Colorado
Assistant Professor of Counseling

2012-2014

Facilitated comprehensive instruction for in-seat and online graduate courses, including Human Growth and Development, Clinical Internship, and the integration of Psychology and Theology. Leveraged Blackboard and multi-media tools to enhance remote learning while providing dedicated academic advising and professional mentorship to students. Managed clinical oversight by supervising interns and collaborating with community sites to evaluate student performance. Beyond the classroom, contributed to institutional growth through the Admissions Committee and the Online Education Committee, where I assisted in the development and launch of new online programming. Maintained an active professional presence by serving as an editor for two peer-reviewed journals and as a member of the Governing Board Council and two committees for the Colorado Counseling Association.

New Beginning Counseling Service, Littleton, Colorado
Owner and practicing therapist

2012-2013

Established and managed a private clinical practice, providing comprehensive psychological assessments, individualized treatment planning, and therapeutic interventions for a diverse client population. Orchestrated all aspects of business operations, including strategic marketing and the cultivation of community partnerships to build a robust referral network. Maintained full clinical and administrative responsibility for the practice, ensuring high-quality care and adherence to professional ethical standards.

Columbia International University, Columbia, South Carolina Spring 2012
Adjunct Professor of Counseling

Co-facilitated CNS 5410: Research, Statistics & Evaluation in partnership with the Dean of the Counseling Program. Provided comprehensive instruction on complex qualitative and quantitative research methodologies, guiding graduate students through the design and execution of their final research projects. Managed all aspects of student assessment, including grading and providing substantive clinical and academic feedback to ensure mastery of statistical concepts and evaluative research techniques.

University of South Carolina, Columbia, South Carolina
Graduate Assistant

August 2009-May 2012

Collaborated with Dr. Tena Crews to coordinate the annual Teaching Business in Education conference, managing outreach and securing sponsorships through strategic partnerships with local proprietors. Provided comprehensive editorial support for academic manuscripts, ensuring high standards of clarity and technical accuracy for submission to peer-reviewed journals. Managed administrative logistics for large-scale events and contributed to the advancement of departmental research and publication goals.

Palmetto Health Behavioral Care, Addiction Recovery Center Jan. 2010-April 2010
Ph.D. Counselor Intern

Supported the facilitation of outpatient group therapy for individuals recovering from substance use disorders, utilizing the 12-Step model of recovery. Provided intensive individual therapy focused on the exploration of emotional states, identification of triggers, and the disruption of the cycle of abuse. Collaborated closely with a multidisciplinary clinical team to conduct assessments and implement evidence-based treatment modalities, ensuring the development and continuous monitoring of effective, individualized treatment plans.

Cleveland Community College, Shelby, North Carolina
Adjunct Professor of Religion

2008-2009

Facilitated comprehensive instruction for both traditional in-seat and hybrid courses, specializing in Old and New Testament Survey. Leveraged the Blackboard Learning Management System (LMS) to deliver curriculum and engage students across multiple learning formats. Actively contributed to the departmental review process, ensuring academic rigor and alignment with institutional standards for religious studies.

Family Service, Inc. Gastonia, North Carolina
Assistant Clinical Director, Licensed Professional Counselor

2006-2009

Provided clinical counseling for at-risk populations with complex disorders while directing the supervision of practicum students to enhance professional identity and clinical skills. Served as Chairperson for both the Council on Accreditation committee and the Quality Improvement Team, where I spearheaded weekly case reviews and treatment plan evaluations. Beyond clinical oversight, I secured organizational growth through grant research, led interdisciplinary treatment teams, and represented the agency on a community advocacy board. Additionally, I developed departmental goal-measurement procedures to rigorously evaluate and improve the efficacy of client services.

Hardin Baptist Church, Dallas, North Carolina
Associate Pastor of Pastoral Care & Counseling, Licensed Professional Counselor

2005-2008

Delivered professional clinical counseling to individuals and families while managing a comprehensive referral network of community-based agencies. Developed and facilitated educational presentations on mental health topics, including grief, depression, and communication dynamics. Provided vital clinical consultation and oversight to deacons and lay caregivers, offering guidance and emotional support to help them navigate complex and high-stress pastoral care situations.

Timberlawn Psychiatric Hospital, Dallas, Texas
MABC Intern, Trauma Unit

2004-2005

Conducted comprehensive psychological assessments and facilitated a variety of therapeutic modalities within an inpatient setting, including psychoeducational, music therapy, and journal therapy groups. Provided direct clinical counseling to patients navigating complex trauma and acute mental health challenges, such as sexual abuse recovery, dissociative identity disorder, bipolar disorder, grief, and anxiety. Collaborated within a multidisciplinary team to deliver intensive care to high-acuity populations.
